She Was too Vivacious.
Philip Scheyer, a wealthy cloak manufacturer, is accused by his young wife of having offered her $8,000 if she would get a divorce.

Scheyer is fifty years old. His wife is twenty-five and pretty. She is staying with her uncle at No. 564 Lexington avenue. Scheyer is at his home, No. 1,887 Madison avenue.
After a short courtship the couple were married on February 16 last by Rabbi Schwab at the home of the bride's uncle. Scheyer was a widow with five children, one of whom is married. The others live with him.
The wife declares that she was startled shortly after her marriage when her husband suddenly announced that they must part. Although she begged him for an explanation he would give none until the next day, when he told her she laughed and talked too much.

This seemed so ridiculous Mrs. Scheyer concluded her husband was joking, but two days later he renewed the subject with great earnestness and at this time, she says, offered her the sum mentioned if she would get a divorce, adding:
"You can marry again. Plenty of young men would be attracted by your beauty."
According to Mrs. Scheyer her husband came home on March 16 with a Mr. Goodman, one of his clerks, who had been instructed to tell the woman to go away. Mrs. Scheyer asked her husband if he were not a man and capable of attending to his own affairs. "I am not a man," was his answer, according to the wife. She then asked her husband what fault she had committed. His reply was that the fault was all on his side.
Mrs. Scheyer then went to her uncle's home, where she has remained. She consulted Congressman Fitch, who brought proceedings in the Harlem Police Court yesterday afternoon to compel Scheyer to support his wife. The woman was in court dressed in a rich costume of black.
The husband was present with Lawyers Howitz and Munzinger, who had the case adjourned until next Tuesday. Mrs. Scheyer says her husband is worth $100,000.—N. Y. Herald.

HYPNOTIZED HIS PRISONER.—Captain S. Spencer Smith, of the English army, upon whom Sergeant Sheehan tried the powers of mesmerism last Saturday night, was again intoxicated Wednesday evening and was taken to the west Thirtieth street police station.
Sergeant Halpin was in charge when Cabman James Mitchell entered and told the sergeant that he had an intoxicated man in his cab and could not get him out alone. Smith was carried into the back room and laid on the floor. He was unconscious and absolutely oblivious of his surroundings.
While he lay there Inspector McEvoy and Capt. O'Connor entered, and the captain told the inspector of Sergeant Sheehan's peculiar power and how he had exercised it on the previous visit of the prisoner. The Inspector was very much interested and asked him to try to awaken the unconscious man.

Sergeant Sheehan walked into the back room and stooping over Smith made a couple of quick passes with his hands and snapped his fingers. The man began to move uneasily and finally when the Sergeant said, "Get up, old man," he arose to his feet and walked toward the Sergeant, who began to back away. Smith followed him into the front room and up to the desk. Sergeant Halpin asked him for his name and address, but received no response. Then Sergeant Sheehan asked him, and he immediately replied, giving his name as Captain S. Spencer Smith, his age as fifty-two and his address the Hotel Brunswick. Then he followed the Sergeant down stairs and into a cell. Immediately thereafter he went off into a drunken sleep.—N. Y. Herald.

I was troubled with catarrh for seven years previous to commencing the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It has done for me what other so-called cures have failed to do—cured me. The effect of the Balm seemed magical.—Clarence L. Huff, Biddeford, Me.
After trying many remedies for catarrh during past twelve years, I tried Ely's Cream Balm with complete success. It is over one year since I stopped using it and have had no return of catarrh. I recommend it to all my friends.—Milton T. Palm, Reading.

INSURANCE COMPANIES.

WHY? WHEN? WHERE?

WHY should you insure your life? 1st. Because in no other way can you secure to your family the profits arising from your work. 2nd. If you are poor, it gives protection to your family. 3rd. If you are rich it gives you a good investment.

WHEN should you insure your life? NOW.

1st. Because you may die before doing so. 2nd. You may become uninsurable. 3rd. It certainly will cost you more if you delay.

WHERE should I insure my life?

With the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States.

1st. Because it is the strongest, having the largest surplus in the world. 2nd. Because it is the largest, doing more business annually, and having more assurance in force than any Company in the World. 3rd. Because its policies are free from conditions, absolutely incontestable after one year, and its losses are paid at once. 4th. Because its Tontine policies now maturing show that the holders have realized besides protection, a first-class investment. The results are in excess of those experienced by any other Company.
